

Friends of the Fairview Heights Library

What is a Library Friend

Friends of the Fairview Heights Library are citizens convinced of the importance of an up-to-date, well-equipped and staffed library. They believe in the value of reading in the lives of young and old and look to the library as the educational and informational center of the community. The Friends aid in developing public knowledge of the library and in making its resources better known to the community at large.

Friends Activities

Meet four times each year, the 4th Friday of January, April, July and October at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Sponsors used book sales and conduct other fund raising activities to benefit the library.

Arrange exhibits of items of public interest.

Other volunteer positions may be available by arrangement with the library director.
